A CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

JOHN A. SHAEFFER, of Philadelphia, who has for a few years past been in the southern States, has had the effrontery to draw several Bills of Exchange on Timothy Pickering, Esq. Secretary of State, and myself, and by that means has defrauded a number of persons of their money, deceiving them by an exhibition of letters and papers with the names affixed of divers public characters and reputable merchants highly recommendatory of said Shaeffer; to one of these papers I find my name subscribed, but I do not know the man; these are villainous forgeries! To prevent further imposition, I have to request the printers of Newspapers in the United States to publish this for the benefit of their fellow-citizens. SAMUEL MEREDITH,
Treasurer of the United States.

A French Claſſical & Mathematical SCHOOL.

WILL be opened on Monday the 22d. inſtant at that large commodious room formerly occupied by Mr. Leo in Norris's Alley, No. 15, nearly oppoſite the City Tavern; under the direction of Meſſrs. Smith and Chandler both of liberal education, and long experienced in their reſpective profeſſions—As they intend under the patronage of a diſcerning public, permanently to eſtabliſh themſelves in this undertaking, their whole ſtudy and attention will be devoted to the improvement of their pupils.—Theſe will be conducted upon the lateſt and moſt approved plans, through a complete courſe of academical ſtudies, or thoſe parts only that may be pointed out, as more immediately adapted to their particular views in life—Certain portions of their time will be aſſigned for geography, hiſtory, extracts, compoſition, and declamations in French and Engliſh, in order to form early habits of writing and ſpeaking with propriety—Viſits from parents and literary characters, tending to excite a ſpirit of emulation, will be gratefully received. The hours of ſtudy are from 9 to 12 A.M. and from 2 to 5 P. M.

They offer to tranſlate the Engliſh, French, Spaniſh and Portugueſe languages; and to draw in their proper modes and ſtile, all kinds of writing, whether legal, commercial, or epiſtolary.

The firſt Monday in November, they alſo propoſe to open an evening ſchool for French, bookkeeping, ſurveying and navigation, of which they have a practical as well as theoretical knowledge. As a number of French gentlemen will attend, the ſtudents of their language, by continually converſing with them, as well as their teachers, will acquire, along with the principles, a facility of expreſſion.

Forty Dollars Reward

FOR APPREHENDING

A GENTLEMAN NEGRO,

BY name GEORGE or GEORGE PARKER, the property of the ſubſcriber, who has thought proper on the night of the 21ſt inſt. to elope from his maſter without any provocation or juſt cauſe; he was formerly the property of Beckwith Butler, eſq. and lived a conſiderable time with ——— Pottenger, who kept tavern in Frederickburg, having ſeen much company and travelled with ſeveral gentlemen through different parts of this ſtate, he is much known. It is therefore conjectured he will puſh for ſome of the northern cities or towns as he has diſcovered an averſion to plantation work, though he may perhaps have croſſed the ridge where he has a brother belonging to major Butler.

This fellow is about five feet ſeven inches high, well proportioned and walks active and briſk, his countenance is open and agreeable enough when in good humour; he can hardly be ſurpaſt in ſhrewdneſs, and is a very capable waiting-man, houſe ſervant, barber, &c. To deſcribe his dreſs would be uſeleſs, as he poſſeſſed a variety of clothes, though when dreſſed lately, he wore a green coat bound with white ferreting and ſpotted jacket and breeches. Whoever brings him home or ſecures in goal in this or any other ſtate the ſaid ſlave, ſo that I may get him again, ſhall have the above reward.

Sixty Dollars Reward.

MADE their eſcape from the Gaol in the borough of Lancaſter, on Saturday evening laſt, between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock, two French priſoners, part of the crew of La Croyable.

The one named Etienne Auſtin, a native of Bordeaux in France, 26 years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches high, dark eyes and complexion, by trade a carpenter, ſuppoſed to be unacquainted with the Engliſh or German language. Had on when he went away, a white hat, pantaloons, and ſhort jacket, tight made, and probably took with him ſome other clothes.

The other named Peter Duprieux, a native of Bujoin in France, 20 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches high, grey eyes, dark complexion, a ſeaman by occupation, a dirty ill-looking fellow. Had on when he went away, a white hat, pantaloons, and ſhort jacket, tight made, and probably took with him ſome other clothes.

The other named Peter Huſton, about 5 feet 4 inches high, of a ſmiling countenance, lately convicted of a felony in this county. Had on when he went away, a long blue coat, a pair of white trowſers, both ragged, and a black hat.

Twenty-five dollars will be paid for apprehending and ſecuring in any goal, each or either of the above named Frenchmen, and Ten dollars for the negro, by

New mode of diſcovering the bent of Genius.

[From the "Looker On."]

ONE of my anceſtors, who was the greateſt droll of all the Olivebranches, among many odd particulars, has left us a liſt of the accidental diſcoveries which his different acquaintance have made of their own talents, and the occaſions of thoſe diſcoveries, a few articles of which I will lay before my readers. His motto is.

——Plus enim fati valet bona benigni
Quam te Veneris commendat epiſtola Marti

"Try all you can, by int'reſt, love, or letter;
"A lucky hit will do your buſineſs better."

11th of March, 1672—Sam Stunt, happening to put himſelf into a pair of ſcales in the courſe of ſome experiments on the effects of air on the human body, diſcovered himſelf to be the exact weight of a horſe; and inſtead of a ridiculous philoſopher, is become a very learned jockey.

1ſt of April.—Tom Hardcaſtle, in endeavouring to be witty this day on all mankind, found he did better as a butt, and has ſince ſerved in that capacity to the great entertainment of his friends.

4th of June—Ned Sparerib began to walk the hoſpital this day, and convinced himſelf and the world, before night, that nature had deſigned him for a carcaſe butcher.

17th of Auguſt—Will Croſſſtick, who had written ſeveral pamphlets, and much treaſon, without turning a penny, as he was whittling out his meditations, ſaw a ruſty razor lying on the road; his genius took fire at the omen, and he has ſince been a topping barber at Shoreditch.

2d of September—Jack Parſnip, who had begun his career as a pariſh officer, and had ſince ſtepped forward as a great politician, being purſued hard by the bailiffs, hid himſelf in a dungcart: his genius for gardening began immediately to make great ſhoots; and the beſt melons in the country are now of his raiſing.

4th of November.—Bob Smirk, after following the buſineſs of an attorney without ſucceſs for many years, found out his talent for mimicry as he followed a rich uncle to the grave.

1ſt of December.—Ben Bodkin was a fellow of ſprightly parts; he felt conſcious of a genius for ſomething but he did not know what; he tried various callings and occupations, till, being hired at the theatre to aſſiſt in the proceſſion in the tragedy of Alexander the Great, he ſcraped acquaintance with a journeyman taylor: his genius developed itſelf in a moment; and before Alexander could well get into Babylon, he drew a pair of ſciſſars from his pocket, and made a deſperate effort to cabbage the ſkirt of his royal mantle. I am told that at this day there is nothing in the whole trade ſo capital as the cut of Ben Bodkin's coats.

24th of December.—As Bob Furbiſh was turning the corner of a ſtreet, his hat was blown off into an auctioneer's pulpit; he followed it cloſe, and mounted the roſtrum juſt as they began to bid for it. The moment he ſaw the crowd below him, the workings of his mind were prodigious; he declared himſelf inſpired, and hurried down without his hat: the next day he entered into the profeſſion; and no man handles the hammer like Bob Furbiſh at this hour.

2d of January, 1673.—Paul Puff had acted as pedlar, pupper ſhow man, and quack doctor, till, being tempted on the evening of this day to take a hot mutton pye in exchange for a box of pills, all the paſtry cook was lighted up in his ſoul, and his ſhop is now the moſt conſiderable in the city.

The Editor of the Oracle of Dauphin has the following comments on the conviction of Lyon.

FOR THE ORACLE.

MR. WYETH,

You will oblige a ſubſcriber by inſerting the following immediately after the account of the Vermont Lyon.

CITIZENS OF DAUPHIN,

IT will not be improper to inform you, that the above Matthew Lyon was a repreſentative in Congreſs from the ſtate of Vermont; ever a firm and avowed anti-federal and jacobin; the man of ſpitting record, the man, whoſe ill breeding coſt the United States the trifling ſum of twelve or fourteen thouſand dollars, though notwithſtanding all that has been ſaid or may be ſaid againſt this man, forty-four of the Members of Congreſs whoſe ſentiments were (I preſume) the oppoſite to federal, thought him worthy to retain his ſeat. Perhaps their friendſhip will induce them to viſit this hero of jacobiniſm in his gloomy cell. For ſure it is not genuine friendſhip, which deſerts the object of its eſteem in adverſity and diſtreſs ——Go, then, ye who eſteem and admire his ſentiments ——Go, caſt a grateful retroſpect at the ſituation he is placed in, by diſobedience to the laws of that country which has hitherto protected him; deſert him not; enliven his hours of confinement with ca ira, ca ira and Marſeilles hymn; let him not repine; he is not the only political ſinner: Ye who admire ſentiments ſuch as his, will kneel in obeiſance to his creed.

The Ambaſſador of the new-fangled Ciſalpine Republic, at Paris, has repreſented in an official note, to Citizen "Beaucoup de l'Argent," that a conſpiracy had been ſet on foot to overturn the Ciſalpine Conſtitution; and "that a handful of miſcreants who aſſembled at the houſe of the French Ambaſſador, Trouve, compoſed the committee of innovation."—Oh! the bleſſings of French Fraternity!

If the French Directory, in proſecuting their ſchemes of deception, ſhould ſend an Envoy or Envoys to the United States, as it is ſaid they will, to treat of reconciliation—and they ſhould experience the ſame reception, treatment, &c. as our Envoys did at Paris—which every one muſt confeſs, will be fair play, it is eſſential that the government of the United States ſhould be made acquainted with all the inſults which have been given it, by the French powers that be. One of the complaints of the French againſt the United States was certain expreſſions againſt the conduct of the Directory, publiſhed in the American papers.—We have now before us, a file of "The Redacteur," the French official gazette; almoſt every page of which contains ſome inſult to our beloved Preſident. In one we read thus: "The miſerable Pickthanks (flagorneries) of John Adams, will not deceive the enlightened Americans;—who like us, muſt with the freedom of the ſeas."—In the ſame paper it is added, "John Adams has ordered a day of general faſting. This is truly laughable." We could quote many ſuch ſarcaſtic inuendoes; and ſhall reſerve our files againſt the time when they will tell beſt.

NEW-YORK, November 9.

We hear that Capt. Leonard and Mr. Rutledge had a meeting yeſterday morning, near Powles Hook, to ſettle the differences between them. And it is with regret we add, that in exchanging a couple of ſhot Mr. Rutledge was wounded, though ſlightly, in the thigh. We are happy to find that captain L. has acted with great propriety from the firſt origin of this affair to its painful termination. He neither raſhly precipitated himſelf into unneceſſary peril; nor did he, when he found ſatisfaction was not to be obtained by a proper explanation, heſitate a ſingle moment to ſeek it by the only alternative left to a man of conſcious integrity and courage.

It is aſtoniſhing to what dirty, pitiful artifices, the papers unfriendly to government ſtoop, to further their purpoſes. This is moſt viſible in thoſe which are publiſhed in obſcure villages and remote parts of the country. No miſrepreſentations, no falſhoods are too groſs to be rejected. They preſs into their vile ſervice every thing that will promote their views, without regard to truth, honor, or the public good. Even the decency of appearance is by ſome entirely thrown aſide as a uſeleſs incumbrance—The only conſolation we have, is, that the moſt of them are as deſtitute of talents as they are of probity.

The Jacobin papers throughout the continent are conſtantly mourning the fate of their brethren the United Iriſhmen, and harrowing up our imaginations with hideous pictures of new and more enormous taxes, and greater loads of galling chains, impoſed on the unhappy ſons of Erin. Why do they not turn their eyes to their beloved France, groaning under the weight of the moſt oppreſſive MILITARY government that ever diſgraced the page of hiſtory.

We are happy in perceiving the growing jealouſy of foreigners. The innundation of ſuſpicious characters, particularly from Ireland and France, ſhould awaken the moſt ſerious concern in every breaſt, anxious for the ſafety and happineſs of theſe now United and proſperous States. We ſhall ere long, we fear, find cauſe to repent our IMPRUDENT GENEROSITY.

What has been the character of the French nation under the monarchy? Its ſtrongeſt features were PERFIDY, INTRIGUE, and the moſt RESTLESS and GRASPING AMBITION? What is its character NOW under the pure and peaceful genius of republicaniſm?—BLACK as CRIMES can make it—more perfidious, more intriguing, more venal and ambitious. [Snowden's D. A.]

HEALTH COMMITTEE.

The Health Committee for the relief of the ſick and indigent in the city of New-York, beg leave to congratulate their fellow-citizens, that under Divine Providence this long afflicted city is once more reſtored to its uſual ſtate of General Health, and with the moſt heartfelt pleaſure inform thoſe who yet remain in exile, that although a few caſes of the peſtilential fever exiſt, yet that by the late cool weather and froſts, the contagion is ſo far deſtroyed as to render the return of their families to the city perfectly ſafe. provided they take the neceſſary previous meaſures of cleanſing and ventilating their long unaired dwellings, and purifying the bedding and cloathing which may have been left therein during the prevalence of the fever.

It would have afforded the committee much ſatisfaction could they have given this invitation at an earlier period, but they did not conceive themſelves warranted by the then exiſting circumſtances. There have until the preſent moment been ſeveral new caſes of fever, particularly among thoſe citizens who returned earlier than the committee thought prudent, many of whom have fallen victims to the devouring peſtilence. This, among other circumſtances, has induced the committee to withhold this invitation until the preſent time. The committee beg leave further to inform their fellow-citizens, that from the numerous applications from the indigent for relief, they find it abſolutely neceſſary to continue their labors ſome time longer.

N. B. The committee continue their meetings at the New Alms Houſe, where they will thankfully receive ſuch donations as may be offered for the relief of the poor.

By order of the committee,
GABRIEL FURMAN, Chairman.

PHILADELPHIA,

SATURDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 10.

This day about eleven o'clock, our beloved General arrived in town. Detachments from the different troops of horſe met him on the road, at and from Cheſter, and eſcorted him to the city. Captains Wharton, M'Kean, Dunlap, Morrel, and Singer's companies of cavalry—M'Pherſon's blues, and Captain Hozey's company were drawn up in the centre ſquare, and as he approached he alighted from his carriage, and with his ſecretary Mr. Lear, paſſed the line uncovered, to the uſual ſalute of preſented arms. He was juſtly and univerſally received with preſented hearts—never did more joy and confidence appear than his preſence inſpired. Having got into his carriage again, he was eſcorted to Mrs. White's, in Eighth ſtreet, where a guard from M'Pherſon's blues was immediately mounted, to attend their friend and chief, which we underſtand, is to be regularly relieved during his continuance in this city.

Major General Alexander HAMILTON and the Hon. James M'HENRY, Secretary at War, alſo arrived in town this day, and accompanied the Lieutenant General to his lodgings in Eighth ſtreet.

LOGAN—THE MINGO CHIEF.

If Logan ſhould ſwing for High Treaſon, "who is there would mourn for Logan?—Not one." Jefferſon's Notes.

From Mr. Cobbett's Gazette.

Eloquent Savages.

It appears from the Vermont papers, that a ſquad of Indians have lately been at Vergennes to a talk with the Governor and Legiſlature of that State, of which the following is a part.

Big Fathers,

"May the Great Spirit brighten the "chain of friendſhip between our tribes; "may the pathway between us be kept ſo "that a little child may find it when the ſun "is aſleep in his blanket under the weſtern "waters."

[If they had called them Big Mothers the language would not have been ſo revolting. This talk in point of eloquence, is much about equal to the infamous ſpeech of LOGAN. The poor copper-coloured devils never hatched it. It was taught them by ſome fur-merchant, and they repeated it, like parrots. Yet ſhall we, very probably, ſee ſome philoſopher of the day, ſome precious compound of folly and knavery, giving this ridiculous bombaſt to the world as a ſpecimen of the SUBLIME, and as a proof of our inferiority to theſe itineraut ſavages.

As to the object of this Talk, it appears to be MONEY. Whether the Big Fathers will give it, is another queſtion. If they have common prudence, they will not give them a farthing; for, if they once begin, they will have talk upon talk, 'till there is not a penny or a bottle of rum left in the State.]

DEBORAH LOGAN requeſts you to give the following a place in your paper.—Stenton, Nov. 5, 1798.

Extract of a letter from Doctor Logan, dated Bourdeaux, September 9, 1798, to his Wife.

"I have the pleaſure to inform you that I "embark this day on board the ſhip Perſeverance for Philadelphia, and ſhall bring with "me diſpatches for our government, calculated to reſtore that harmony, the loſs of which "has been ſo ſenſibly felt by both countries.—"All American veſſels in the harbors of France "have been releaſed—all American priſoners "have been ſet at liberty; and the moſt poſitive aſſurances have been made that France is "ready to enter on a treaty for the amicable "accommodation of all matters in diſpute.—"American citizens are treated with reſpect in "every part of France, and the appearance of "a reconciliation between the two republics affords the higheſt ſatisfaction to all claſſes of "citizens in this country, &c. &c.

GEORGE LOGAN."

ENVOY LOGAN.

The letter from the above gentleman affords the beſt comment on the character of thoſe patriots, who are willing to ſacrifice the liberty of their country, to the inſidious deſigns of an unprincipled foreign foe—and to barter, in the very face of their countrymen, the honor of their government the ſecurity of their moſt invaluable rights, for the deluſive hopes of French juſtice. As we cannot permit ourſelves to doubt its authenticity, the citizen envoy, with his whole train of French diplomatic paraphernalia, may be hourly expected.

Porcupine's Remarks on CERTO, publiſhed in Thurſday's Gazette.

"No, Mr. FENNO, I will not enter the liſts with any anonymous writer. I have, as you ſay, declared myſelf, and I am ready to ſupport my opinion, and prove that I am no fickly dreamer; but I will not combat with a CERTO; that would be very unfair. If there be any uncertainty as to the iſſue of the diſpute, the little pretenſion I have to underſtanding, ſtands pledged with my name, while Mr. CERTO and his protean brethren run no riſk at all; for, were they, at laſt, to perceive that they were blockheads, they would certainly have the prudence to keep the valuable diſcovery to themſelves.

"If any man, having the leaſt title to reſpect or attention, will come forward in his own name, and aſſert, that the XVIIIth Century does not cloſe with the laſt moment of 1799, I will, without the leaſt aſperity, or attempt at ridicule, endeavour to convince him of his error; but, as to correſpondents or paragraphiſts, who write under feigned names, or no names at all, I ſhall treat their opinions and their language juſt as to me ſeemeth good.

"I am neither diſappointed nor diſpleaſed at ſeeing ſuch a vaſt majority againſt me. I have ſeldom had the misfortune to travel in a crowd.

COMMUNICATION.

I have ſeen ſo much in the different News-Papers reſpecting the end of the Eighteenth Century, that I cannot believe the perſons who firſt ſtarted any difficulties on this ſubject were in earneſt, and I am inclined to think their aſſertions have been made merely with a view of ſhewing the world what ſerious diſputes may be maintained on one of the plaineſt queſtions that ever was propoſed for inveſtigation—If you will give the following a place in your paper, it will perhaps go down as well as ſome other ſtatements on this ſilly ſubject.

A Century contains 100 years and each year contains 52 weeks, of courſe each century will contain	5,200	weeks
Eighteen Centuries will of courſe contain	93,600
At the end of the year 1799 there will have paſſed away 1799 times fifty-two weeks, or,	93,548
On 31ſt Dec. 1800 there will have gone	52
	93,600

We muſt of courſe wait until the end of the year 1800, before we can ſay 93,600 weeks have expired, or 18 centuries have ended.

If the 18th century end with 31ſt Dec. 1799 the 19th century will of courſe begin with the 1ſt January, 1800—Should this be the caſe the firſt century muſt have commenced with the 1ſt January in the year 0, that is 12 months before the chriſtian æra—for as the 19th century begins with a cypher, the firſt century muſt ſtart in the ſame way—Suppoſe our Savior had remained on earth until the 31ſt December 1799, would he have been 1800 years old, or would he not in the middle of the year 1800 be in his eighteen hundredth year? People may ſay what they will, but I am determined, if my life ſhould be ſpared, to ſpend at leaſt 25 months yet in the 18th century.——Yours, A. B.

To Doctors Currie and Dewees, attending Phyſicians at the Encampment, Maſters's Place:—

GENTLEMEN,

We feel ourſelves conſtrained to make a public as well as a private acknowledgement to you, for your humane, ſteady and unexpectedly gratuitous ſervices in attending the diſtreſſed objects under our care, who were not only afflicted with that bitter ſcourge, poverty, but alſo diſeaſe; many of whom muſt inevitably have fallen victims to the latter, had it not been for your philanthropy and judicious preſcriptions. An expectation of the moſt ample pecuniary reward, could not have prompted you to a more regular and unremitting attention. But to minds ſo ſuſceptible as yours, a conſciouſneſs of having alleviated the miſeries, and been inſtrumental in preſerving the lives of many of your fellow citizens, is the beſt poſſible retribution for ſuch meritorious ſervices.

Arrived, brig Perignon, John Beaty, maſter, 70 days from St. Ubes—came paſſenger capt. Jacob Whittemore, of the brig Farmer, who was captured on the 12th of April, on his paſſage from Liverpool to St. Nicholas, within 14 leagues of the latter port, by the L'Revenge French privateer, of 16 guns, and 180 men, capt. Grillott, belonging to Bourdeaux. Capt. Whittemore was moſt cruelly treated by theſe marauders, robbed of all his clothes, money, and every article that could be laid hand on; was confined on board his own veſſel, and 7 Frenchmen ordered to conduct her to ſome port in France. On the 20th April the prize arrived at Corunna, where ſhe was condemned by Mr. Lagonrer, agent for all the prizes ſent into that port, for having Engliſh manufactured goods on board. HAPPY DISCOVERY.

A certain Cure for that alarming and dreadful Disorder

The Yellow Fever,

As well as any other dangerous putrid fever, fever and ague, and other inveterate and complicated diseases, by the use of the

POUDRE UNIQUE,

WELL known and patented in England, France, Poland, and all the capital cities in Europe, where the most astonishing cures have been effected on persons judged incurable by all physicians. In a Treatise printed in London, on the properties of this powder, by T. Seymour, M. D late Chemist to his Majesty, there are stated two hundred cases, where this most valuable remedy has proved infallible, in all kind of fevers, pleurisy, bloody flux, inverate rheumatisms, sciatica, apoplexy, paralysie, yellow jaundice, ringworm, worms in children and in grown persons, whites, chronical head and stomach aches, hepatick and nephretical or stone cholic, the kings evil, scurvy and the most inveterate and complicated venereal disease. It is likewise the best preparative for the small pox and measles; of the greatest utility for young as well as for elder ladies at the critical epoch of their life. The efficacy of this powder in several of the above diseases has been discovered by chance, and so it has been in the yellow fever last year, by Mr. Mahy, who cured several by administering only two of the said powders, and lost not a single patient which he undertook to cure, as proved and attested by the here annexed certificates, whose original may be seen at Andrew Hadfeg's umbrella shop, No. 131, corner of Chesnut and Fourth streets, the only place where these powders are to be had, with proper directions for the use of them.—Price two dollars.

The usefulness and certainty of this remedy being so great for so many dangerous disorders, any person wishing to be provided with those powders, will please to apply very soon, as the quantity at hand is not very large, and it is doubtful if for a long time, or if ever any other genuine will be imported, the secret remaining only in the hands of the inventor, in Europe, and never being communicated to, or discovered by any other person.

N. B In the yellow and putrid fevers, this powder must be taken the second, or at least the third day.

We the subscribers, during the late sickness in this city, having taken the yellow fever, applied to Mr. Mahy for his medical assistance, we do hereby certify, that by a certain powder, called the Poudre Unique, we were perfectly recovered from the said fatal sickness, and from an experience of the happy effects of the above most valuable medicine, consider it our duty to make the same known, for the benefit of our fellow citizens.

AN ORATION,

Pronounced July 4, 1798,

At the request of the Inhabitants of the Town of BOSTON, in commemoration of the anniversary of American Independence.

By JOSIAH QUINCY.

"The inroads upon our public liberty, call for reparation—The wrongs we have sustained, call for—Justice. That Reparation and that Justice, may yet be obtained, by Union, Spirit, and Firmness. But to divide and conquer was the maxim of the Devil in the garden of Eden, and to disunite and enslave hath been the principle of all his votaries from that period to the present."

PROPOSALS,

BY THE

Insurance Company of North America.

For INSURANCE against FIRE, on Dwelling-Houses, Ware-Houses, and other Buildings (and on Goods contained in such Buildings) distant from Philadelphia, in the United States.

I. Common Insurances, on hazards of the first class, will be undertaken at a premium of ahout half per cent. per annum. For extra hazardous risques a larger premium will be required, which will vary according to circumstances, seldom exceeding one per cent. per annum; but in some instances, where the property insured is not only in itself extra hazardous, but rendered still more so by the vicinity of extra hazardous buildings and occupations, the premium demanded will be raised according to circumstances.

Houses and Ware-Houses, the walls and partitions of which are wholly of stone or brick, well constructed, so as to be guarded as well as may be against fires from within, and free from extra hazardous buildings and occupations in their neighborhood, will be deemed hazardous of the first class, and may be insured to their full value.

Also Goods and Merchandize, not of an extra hazardous kind, in casks, bales, or packages, deposited in such buildings, to an amount not exceeding 4000 dollars; but if more than this sum is required to be insured in one tenement, an additional premium will be required, in proportion to circumstances.

II. Insurances will also be made on buildings and goods extra hazardous, at premiums proportioned to the risque. But it is not easy to arrange these under particular heads or classes, so as to describe each with the necessary accuracy. Each case must therefore be decided upon according to the circumstances attending it; and these circumstances will, in general, appear from the description accompanying the application.

Buildings partly constructed of brick or stone, are preferable to those wholly wooden. And in both cases, the stile of building, how they are occupied, how they are situated, the neighboring buildings, and how occupied, are considerations to be taken into view. And with respect to goods, their tendency, whether from their nature, or from the manner in which they are exposed, either to commence or to increase an accidental fire, and their liability in such state to receive damage by wet, or by sudden and hasty removal, or to be stolen in time of confusion and hurry, are all circumstances of weight; and the premiums must be proportioned accordingly.

III. The following conditions are to be understood by the parties.

1st. The Insurance is not binding till the stipulated premium be paid; but it shall be deemed effectual from the time of such payment and acceptance thereof, whether the policy be immediately signed or not.

2d. Insurances may be renewed at the expiration of the term of the policy, without further expenses than the payment of the premium of the renewed term, the circumstances continuing the same as they were understood by the Insurers at the time the former insurance was made; but the payment of the premium is essential to such renewal; and if the party insured suffers any time to elapse after the expiration of the former insurance, before he pays a premium for the renewal, he is not insured during such time; nor can the insurance be renewed on the former policy but by computing the commencement of the renewal from the expiration of the former insurance. The subject of insurance may nevertheless be open to treaty for a new insurance.

3d. If any other insurance be made on the same property; it must be made known at the time of application, otherwise the policy made on such application will be void.

4th Goods held in trust, or on consignment, may be insured as such in a separate policy; but they are not to be considered as insured otherwise.

5th. This company will not be liable or accountable for any loss or damage occasioned by any foreign invasion, or by any military or usurped force or by reason of any civil commotion; or occasioned by gunpowder, aquafortis or other thing of the like kind kept in the building, or amongst the property insured.

6th. Bills of Exchange, Bonds and other Securities, Title Deeds, Money, Bank and other promissory Notes, are not included in any insurance; nor are paintings, medals, jewels, gems, antique curiosities, or mirrors exceeding the value of twenty-five dollars each, to be considered as insured unless particularly mentioned and by special agreement.

7th. No insurance will be made for a shorter term than one year, nor for a longer term than seven years. Persons choosing to insure for seven years shall be allowed one year's premium by way of discount: One third of a years premium shall be abated in like manner on an insurance for three years.

8th. Losses sustained by fire on property insured, shall be paid in thirty days after due proof and liquidation thereof, without deduction.

A description of the property to be insured will be expected with each application, to be made by a master carpenter and signed by him, as well as by the owner of the building or applicant for insurance, and attested before a Notary or principal Magistrate, who will certify his knowledge of the parties and their credibility.

With respect to Houses and other Buildings.

1st. The site and position; describing the street or road on or near which the building stands; its contiguity to water, and other circumstances relative to the extinguishment of fire in case of accident; and particularly whether any and what fire companies are established, and engines provided, in the place or neighbourhood.

2d. The materials of which it is built, whether of brick, stone or wood, and what part of each, as well as to the outside walls as inside or partition walls, and their respective height and thickness; the style of the roof and of what materials; how secured by battlements or party walls; what kind of access to the top of the house and to the chimnies; whether any and what electric rods; the number and kind of fire places; and the kind of deposit for ashes.

3d. The dimensions of the building and how divided, and the style in which it is finished so as to enable indifferent persons to judge in what manner it is to be repaired or rebuilt in case of injury; the age and condition of the building, and how occupied, whether merely as a dwelling house, or for any other, and for what purpose; also an estimate of the value of the house or building independent of the ground.

4th. The situation with respect to other buildings or back buildings, whether adjoining or not, comprehending at least one hundred feet each way: what kind of buildings are within that distance, how built, of what materials, and how occupied or improved, whether as dwellings for private families or otherwise: whether any and what trade or manufactory is carried on, and particularly whether there be any extra hazardous articles used, or usually deposited in the house, or within the distance aforesaid, and of what kind.

Respecting goods in Houses, Warehouses, &c.

1. A general description of the building in which they are kept will be expected, similar in all respects, as to the danger from fire, with that required for Insurance on the buildings themselves.

2. A description of the kinds and nature of the goods, whether in casks or other packages, or opened; and whether displayed in whole pieces or in the usual form for retailing. And if the goods vary materially in kind, a general estimate of the value of each kind proposed to be insured; but in the last particular minuteness of description is not expected.

3. Baskenridge—for sale

IT consists of 920 acres, almost all of which is a fine rich Meadow, (the residence of the late Earl of Sterling). It may be conveniently divided into five farms, four of which are bounded on the East by the river Passaick.

There are on it a number of buildings, forming a square of nearly three acres—The dwelling house is a very convenient one and a small expence would put it in complete repair.

The orchard consists of 1500 fine bearing engrafted Apple Trees—and there is on other parts of said tract near 300 other Apple Trees—as also a great variety of other fruits, particularly Cherries of the best and most delicious kinds.

Also, a great number of beautiful Exotics and Forest Trees, that add to the beauty and convenience of the place. Its situation is about 18 miles from the towns of Newark and Elizabeth: 10 do. from Morris-Town, and 12 from Springfield—It is wooded and watered.

To save trouble, the price is five pound pr. acre in cash, on delivery of the deeds. Please to enquire of T. McEUEN & Co.

AN ACT

For the relief of the Refugees from the British provinces of Canada and Nova-Scotia.

SEC. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That to satisfy the claims of certain persons claiming lands under the resolutions of Congress, of the twenty-third of April, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, and the thirteenth of April, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, as refugees from the British provinces of Canada and Nova-Scotia, the Secretary for the Department of War, be, and is hereby authorized and directed to give notice in one or more of the public papers of each of the States of Vermont, Massachusetts, New-York, New-Hampshire and Pennsylvania, to all persons having claims under the said resolutions, to transmit to the War-office, within two years after the passing of this act, a just and true account of their claims to the bounty of Congress.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That no other persons shall be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this act, than those of the following descriptions, or their widows and heirs, viz. First, those heads of families, and single persons, not members of any such families, who were residents in one of the provinces aforesaid, prior to the fourth day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and who abandoned their settlements, in consequence of having given aid to the United Colonies or States, in the revolutionary War against Great-Britain, or with intention to give such aid, and continued in the United States, or in their service, during the said war, and did not return to reside in the dominions of the king of Great-Britain, prior to the twenty-fifth of November, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three. Secondly, the widows and heirs of all such persons as were actual residents, as aforesaid, who abandoned their settlements, as aforesaid, and died within the United States, or in their service during the said war: and thirdly, all persons who were members of families at the time of their coming into the United States, and who during the war, entered into their service.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the proof of the several circumstances necessary to entitle the applicants to the benefits of this act, may be taken before a judge of the supreme or district court of the United States, or a judge of the supreme or superior court, or the first justice or first judge of the court of common pleas or county court of any State.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That at the expiration of fifteen months from and after the passing of this act, and from time to time thereafter, it shall be the duty of the Secretary for the Department of War, to lay such evidence of claims as he may have received, before the Secretary and Comptroller of the Treasury, and with them, proceed to examine the testimony, and give their judgment what quantity of land ought to be allowed to the individual claimants, in proportion to the degree of their respective services, sacrifices and sufferings, in consequence of their attachment to the cause of the United States; allowing to those of the first class a quantity not exceeding one thousand acres; and to the last class, a quantity not exceeding one hundred, making such intermediate classes as the resolutions aforesaid, and distributive justice, may, in their judgment require, and make report thereof, to Congress. And in case any such claimant shall have sustained such losses and sufferings, or performed such services for the United States, that he cannot justly be classed in any one general class, a separate report shall be made of his circumstances, together with the quantity of land that ought to be allowed him, having reference to the foregoing ratio: Provided, that in considering what compensation ought to be made by virtue of this act, all grants except military grants, which may have been made by the United States, or individual States, shall be considered at the just value thereof, at the time the same were made, respectively, either in whole or in part, as the case may be, a satisfaction to those who may have received the same: Provided also, that no claim under this law, shall be assignable until after report made to Congress, as aforesaid, and until the said lands be granted to the persons entitled to the benefit of this act.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That all claims in virtue of said resolutions of Congress, which shall not be exhibited as aforesaid, within the time by this act limited, shall forever thereafter be barred.

JONATHAN DAYTON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
TH: JEFFERSON,
Vice-President of the United States, and President of the Senate.

Approved, April 7, 1798.
JOHN ADAMS,
President of the United States.

Deposited among the Rolls in the office of the Department of State.
TIMOTHY PICKERING,
Secretary of State.

☞ Pursuant to the above Act, Notice is hereby given to all persons having claims under the resolutions of Congress, of the 23d of April, 1783, and the 13th of April, 1785, to transmit to the War-Office within two years after the passing of the said Act, viz. the 7th day of April, 1798, a just and true account of their claims to the bounty of Congress.

In the proof of Claims, a strict attention must be paid to the requisitions of the 2d and 3d Sections of the Act.

JAMES M'HENRY,
Secretary of War.
